Description of the Market and the Problem

Corner is designed for the protection of the end user in mind. End-to-End encryption will be the basis of the entire platform. Have you ever worried that your messages are being read by someone other than the intended user? Are you concerned about using Messaging, Pictures, VOIP, or File Sharing on IOS, Android, or the web? How about sending secure payments to a friend or loved one?

Description of the product and how it's going to solve said problem

Corner solves all of these issues and more! Our cryptographic coding ensures that only the end user of your communication receives the message, picture, phone call, or file. No more, do you need to worry about who is looking at your private conversations or files.

Corner will allow for voice, video, and file sharing on the web, android, or IOS systems, for free. Corner can be used locally, nationally or internationally once the software is downloaded. Corner, can be used both on Wi-Fi and with the data.

Users accounts will sign up with a phone number. Once logged in you can setup a password.. In addition to a username and password, you can setup PIN's on your phone or login via biometric authentication already on your device. You will also have the ability to set a "Timeout" limit on each device that you have Corner downloaded to, for further protection.

Additional features include having the ability to set a timer that would delete messages from both the senders and the receivers devices ranging from a few seconds to a few days. There will also be read receipts and typing indicators, but these features can be turned on and off in settings as the user deems fit.

Software encryption will be based on XEdDSA and VXEdDSA, X3DH, Double Ratchet, Sesame.

Tokens

The CNR coin is developed on a proof of stake algorithm base, creating paths for coin holders to receive dividends for staking their coins within supported exchanges and ERC20 wallets. Although this feature has not yet been enabled, but will be enabled at due time.

Corner Coin Distribution

CNR coin will be fairly distributed amongst aspiring investors, with an appreciable quantity of the asset managed and housed in the company's reserves.

The primary objective of CNR is to serve as a digital currency for Corner (CNR) Messaging Services. CNR will also be deployed on multiple exchanges for investment purposes.

The coin distribution schedule is now highlighted for your perusal.

o CashDrop: 5%

o Research and Development: 5%

o Partners: 5%

o CrowdSale: 35%

o Company Reserve: 50%

AirDrop

Before the commencement of both PreSale ICO and IEO CrowdSale, Corner will have an AirDrop campaign. The AirDrop sequence will run for ONLY 30 days.

The objective of the AirDrop is mainly geared towards community building. Eligible bounty hunters & participants will have received free coins after the completion of the Crowdsale.

ICO and IEO Campaign

Corner ICO and IEO Sale, has been fashioned out to achieve a fair outcome for all participating investors. Coin price has been agreeably set to $.04.

The first event featuring the ICO PreSale is scheduled for the January 1, 2021, with full expression of interest phase (IEO CrowdSale) starting on the March 1, 2021.

At the start of the IEO event, we'll focus on two concerns, which will be treated as a top priority, to guide the purchase of CNR coin in a fair manner to the public.

The two concerns are; Provide and equal asset allocation of up 40% of the total public supply of CNR to a wide range of community members. Two, limit purchasing power per individual.

Like many other successful crypto projects, the Corner company trusts to generate support from the community by demonstrating alignment with all these principles.

In order to generate multi-bilingual support, the IEO Crowdsale will be open to investors in any part of the globe. The PreSale ICO on the other hand will be open to preselected countries ONLY, with limited provisions made for volume-based discounts.

The IEO CrowdSale will be hosted on at least two (2) prominent crypto-exchange platforms. In due time more details will be disclosed, to curb monopolistic attempts.

At the time of writing this Whitepaper, The CrowdSale will be available via BTC, ETH, LTC, USD.

To ensure the sale events are carried out with extreme care, purchased coins will be distributed ONLY after the Sales.

A minimum Soft-Cap of $5,000,000 USD will be applied to the sale, alongside a Hard-Cap of $10,000,000 USD.

Note: Unsold coins will be scheduled for a coin burn right before exchange listings; to manage CNR coin's value in real time.

How the raised funds are going to be used

Funds raised are going to be used to further support software development that allows seamless, end-to-end encryption of messaging, voice, files, and payments.
